CHANDLER ANSWERS WOODBURN'S CHARGE

AUSTIN, Nev., Oct. 5.—Charles S. Chandler and party were here last night. "The elaborate defense of Pittman by Woodburn, as published, is merely a confirmation of my statements," Chandler said. "I never said Boyle drew the bill, but related the history as given by Boyle. The bill was a war measure and put through as such. It was prepared and handed to Pittman and he introduced it. A long list of letters and telegrams were read by Woodburn and I thank Pittman for this, and say nowhere had he conceived the idea or drew the bill. I gave Pittman credit for what he did and introduced a bill to amend the law, but I was a war measure to all our ally, England, and I leave it to you whether it would have been passed were Pittman not in the senate. I had no desire to cheat Pittman of his share of the credit, but merely desired to meet the democratic propaganda that existed for Pittman in the senate the bill would have been passed and that the Nevada silver mines would not now have been operating."

BRADSHAW SMILED: BECAUSE OF GIRL

Did you see that smile that Mark Bradshaw, the well-known mining man, was wearing this morning? It was all brought about by the reason of the fact he received a long distance telephone message from Reno informing him that he was the father of a baby girl who made her appearance at St. Mary's hospital in Reno, and the further report that mother and little one were getting along just as fine as could be expected. Miss Bradshaw arrived at 12:25 in the morning, so her birthday must be charged to the 6th of October. This makes three queens in the family, in addition to the mother.

Read the news in the Bonanza and you know what is happening in this old world this day it occurs. Delivered at your very door at one dollar a month.

TREASURE HILLS TO BE FINANCED IN NEAR FUTURE

Eastern Investors Expected to Arrive in Tonopah to Examine Property

A mining transaction that means much for the future of the Silverton district is expected to be consummated shortly when the Nevada Treasure Hills Mines company will be fully financed. A party of New York investors is expected to arrive in Tonopah Sunday to look over the property in question, as well as a number of other groups in which Joe Tognoni, H. C. Stunker and others are interested, and several days will probably be spent at Silverton in studying the situation and thoroughly sampling the holdings.

The Treasure Hills property makes a splendid mineral showing from a shaft that has been sunk to a depth of 100 feet. The vein was picked up at a depth of 80 feet and ore was followed to the bottom of the shaft, since which fine drifts have been extended in both directions for a considerable distance. One essential that is needed in placing these holdings upon a self-supporting and developing basis is a modern mill for the treatment of the ore on the ground, thus eliminating the excessive cost of transportation, the mine lying about 30 miles from Tonopah. Mr. Tognoni has been the owner of the Treasure Hills group of claims for many years, during which time he has shipped at various intervals small quantities of high-grade ore. He has expended many thousands of dollars upon the property and is firmly convinced that he has in the making one of the coming big producers of the outside districts of Nevada.

PERSONAL

MRS. HARRY M. NAKAMURA is home from a visit to Reno.

FREDERICK BRADSHAW, general manager of the Tonopah Belmont Development company, departed this morning for San Francisco.

ARTHUR E. BARNES, district attorney of Esmeralda county, was over from Goldfield today looking after business matters.

SAMUEL S. ARENTZ, congressman from Nevada, accompanied the republican candidates to Goldfield this afternoon, where he will address the rally tonight.

GEORGE WINGFIELD, president of the Tonopah Banking corporation and well-known mining man, left this morning for his home in Reno, after a visit here of three days.

A. I. DARCY, well-known mining man, accompanied by his wife, passed through Tonopah yesterday en route to their home at Goldfield. They had been on the coast for three weeks.

JUDGE MARK R. AVERILL, candidate for district judge to succeed himself, will leave in the morning on a tour of the northern end of the county. He expects to be absent several days.

R. G. GASTON, troubleshooter for the Western Union, has returned from the coast and left this morning in company of John McGilvray for the Moray district, where they are interested in a promising mining property.

W. B. HINCHMAN, assistant traffic manager of the Tonopah & Tidewater, Death Valley & Bullfrog railroads, with headquarters in San Francisco, was an arrival in Tonopah this morning and was met by Dave Aspland, general agent of those companies, with headquarters in Goldfield.

COWBOYS ARE BITTEN BY RABID COYOTE

Two cowboys, Ray Harris, foreman for John Salisbury, and W. Gill, are in Goldfield to take the Pasteur treatment after being bitten by a rabid coyote. The two men who were bitten were members of a party of five cowboys who were sleeping around a wagon in a camp at a well 60 miles east of Goldfield. At 1:30 in the morning Harris was awakened by what he thought was a horse at his hand. He sat up and the coyote attacked the hand, biting it several times. Harris knocked the animal down, but it arose and went to Gill's bed and quickly bit him on the face. Gill's face is spotted with the marks of the coyote's teeth—small marks, as the animal was weak and had worn down its teeth biting rocks. The shouts of Harris and Gill aroused their companions and when one of the men, an Indian, got out of bed the coyote chased him for a hundred yards. Harris threw his shoes and rocks at the crazed animal, but only succeeded in knocking it down. Finally it met its master when it attacked "Dago Joe," who laid it out with a neckyoke.—Tribune

BELMONT MAKES HEAVY OUTPUT DURING MONTH

Production Up to High Standard and Heavy Tonnage Custom Ore Being Received

Tonopah Belmont Development company made its semi-monthly shipment of bullion this morning for the last half of September, the consignment consisting of 41 bars having a gross value of $93,000. This made the total output for the month of September amount to $187,300, which is well within keeping with that of the last several months. Heavy consignments of ore are being received from various outside properties, the heaviest shipper being the Tonopah Divide, with an average of 20 tons daily, having a value averaging close to $40 a ton. Other shipments are being received from the Tonopah North Star, Rescue-Eula, Midway, Montana, Gold Zone and Knox, as well as from Goldfield.

GOLD ZONE LOOKING FINE PRESENT TIME

Operations Being Centered in Raise From Four Hundred to Five Hundred Levels

Operations on the Gold Zone consist of a raise and drift from the 400 level, both of which are in ore of a milling grade. Milling ore is also shipped out between the 400 and 500 levels and between the 500 and 700 levels. All work has been confined to the territory between the 200 and 300 levels for the past year, and a considerable tonnage of ore has been shipped as a result of this work. There also remains in this territory a considerable tonnage of ore of a milling grade which cannot be shipped at a profit, but which would yield a good return if the company had its own mill.

In the near future the management will start development of the 800 level, where the vein is showing strong and well mineralized. The 900 level will also be opened up during the coming year.

NEVADA SILVERHORN ADVANCING TUNNEL

In Lincoln county, on the Nevada Silverhorn, 24 miles north of Pioche, the tunnel which is being driven to develop the main quartz vein has been advanced a distance of 215 feet. The last 60 feet of this advance was in quartz. This quartz is fractured, brecciated and has been re-mineralized. The entire 60-foot width carries low values in silver. The tunnel still has 85 feet to go in order to obtain its objective and the development so far is highly satisfactory in every way.

AMUSEMENTS

CHARLES RAY HERE TODAY

As an actor, Joel, erstwhile chore-boy on a farm, did not make much of a hit with the rest of the cast or with the audience. But when it came to capturing hold-up men he was a brilliant star. The bafastorming troupe of which Joel was the humblest member was playing a "hick town," and because a girl with whom Joel had fallen in love was in the audience, the lad was too flustered to appear very creditable in the role of an actor. But when there came a sharp "Hands up!" from the back of the darkened theater Joel was right on the job. He pretended to be frightened, but after the robber had obtained all the valuables possessed by the audience he followed him to his lair, recovered the loot and captured the robber. He immediately became a hero in real life instead of being one on the stage, and when he looked into Emily's adoring eyes a stage career did not look so inviting. This is a portion of the interesting story of "The Barnstormer," which will be shown at the Butler today. Added to the program, "The Possum."

Tomorrow: William Russell, in "A Self-Made Man," and a two-reel comedy.
